

Point of Contrast #5

HABITS

Your Priorities and Routines

Girl-Gone-Wild

Self-Indulgent

“Her feet do not stay at home;
now in the street, now in the market,
and at every corner . . .”
Proverbs 7:11–12

Girl-Gone-Wise

Self-Disciplined

“She looks well to the ways of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.”
Proverbs 31:27

In the “Girls Gone Wise” book, read the fifth point of contrast between the Wild Thing and the Wise Thing (pages 71-82), and then answer the following questions:

1. How does constantly being “out-and-about” contribute to a woman being a Girl-Gone-Wild?
2. Make a list of the habits and disciplines that you think a wise woman aims to incorporate into her life.
3. Based on your habits, what are your top 5 priorities?

2. Compare your habits to the habits of a Girl-Gone-Wise. Evaluate to what extent each statement describes you:

1. Her habits are self-disciplined and not self-indulgent.

0 1 2 3 4 5

This does NOT describe me

This accurately describes me

2. She habitually attends to matters of personal faith and character.

0 1 2 3 4 5

This does NOT describe me

This accurately describes me

3. She habitually attends to the needs of her household.

0 1 2 3 4 5

This does NOT describe me

This accurately describes me

4. She habitually attends to Kingdom mission and ministry.

0 1 2 3 4 5

This does NOT describe me

This accurately describes me

5. She habitually attends to beneficial (and not idle) pursuits.

0 1 2 3 4 5

This does NOT describe me

This accurately describes me

6. She and her household reap the reward of her disciplined lifestyle.

0 1 2 3 4 5

This does NOT describe me

This accurately describes me

5. Do you have a heart for your home? What homefront “habits” do you have a tendency to neglect?

6. What adjustments do you need to make to ensure that your priorities are in the right order?